To Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and is on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

A CORRECT ANSWER.—In the Methodist Sabbath School yesterday, a teacher asked one of his pupils, a bright boy who evidently knows a thing or two, the following question:

"What was Enoch most noted for?"

Answer.—"For running opposition to the TRANSCRIPT."

If the young man will furnish us his address he shall have the TRANSCRIPT sent to him one year free of charge.

THE THIRD ANNUAL Convention of the Northern Vermont Musical Association, as will be seen on reference to our advertising columns, will be held at St. Albans, commencing January 6th and continuing four days.

ACADEMY EXHIBITION.—The Exhibition at the close of the Academy Schools, to which we have already referred, will take place at Academy Hall on the afternoon and evening of Tuesday December 22d. In the afternoon, the whole school will take part in the exercises, and in the evening, only those will be called upon who are down upon the bills. Tickets will be issued for both afternoon and evening performances at 25 cents, for the purpose of defraying the expenses and to purchase a piano for a permanent school fixture. The undertaking is a laudable one, and the piano will not only be of great benefit to the school, but will supply a long sought desideratum in the hall, for concerts, etc. The expense of moving a piano into the hall up two flights of stairs is considerable besides it is attended with no little danger of damage to the instrument. The instrument is needed there permanently and the receipts for its use, will in time refund the money to the District. We hope this enterprise will meet with the cordial approbation of the people of the village, and that this inducement will be an additional incentive to a liberal patronage. A new song, set to the tune of "Champagne Charley," has been composed for the occasion which will be only a small item in the attractions of the evening. The whole affair will be one of exceeding interest, as no pains will be spared by Mr. Taylor and the school generally to make it so. The name of J. S. D. Taylor, alone is sufficient to insure success. We are informed by Mr. Farnsworth, one of the Committee, that tickets will be distributed and sold by the scholars of the School. May we bespeak for them, a friendly reception at the hands of the parents, and the people of the village, and much currency be received in return.

PAID HER FINE.—Mrs. Catharine Dillon of St. Albans, who was convicted at the last term of the United States Court, at Windsor, of smuggling goods from Canada, and fined the sum of $1500 therefor, on Thursday last paid her fine and costs in the case, amounting in all to nearly $1700.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—We learn that one of the warehouses of Gates & Kilburn, of Philadelphia, furniture dealers, whose principal manufactory is in Burlington was wholly consumed by fire on Thursday evening last, during an extensive conflagration in the city. The loss is estimated at $75,000, which we believe is partly insured.

Personal.

Hon. Prosper Merrill of Felchville, leaves this week for the South where he will remain during the winter for his health.

Louis Uhlbach, in Paris, nets 80,000 francs a year by his pen.

Queen Isabella pays a rent of 70,000 francs for her residence in Paris, and 400,000 francs is to be spent in furnishing it.

John Stuart Mill was defeated for Parliament by William H. Smith, the London news agent, who has made a fortune by selling newspapers, and takes 30,000 copies of the London Times.

A FORMER VERMONT CLERGYMAN ARRESTED.—The Burlington Free Press says: We find the following item in the New York papers. Mr. Bingham was for many years the pastor of the Congregational church in Williston, in Chittenden county:

Luther G. Bingham, for a while a clergyman, but late a broker on Wall street, was charged before Justice Ledwith, at Jefferson Market police court, with obtaining $9,300 in gold under false pretenses. Bingham applied to Robert Bail for the gold, which he purchased for 1.35, giving in payment for the same his own check for $11,500, another check purporting to be signed by one Amerman for $1,000 and a due bill for $65.62. On the checks being presented they were pronounced worthless, and Bingham was arrested and held for examination.

Vermont Life Insurance Company.

This corporation, chartered by the recent Legislature, and located at Burlington, will commence business on the 1st of January next, the capital stock of the company having been subscribed by several prominent and business men of Burlington. The Times says the company have a guarantee capital of $50,000, and will transact business on what is called the mixed plan, thus combining the solid advantages of both the "stock" and "mutual" systems. The direction of the company is composed of the following persons:

DIRECTORS.

Torrey E. Wales,
Lemuel B. Platt,
Samuel Huntington,
James A. Shedd,
Russell F. Taft,
Rodney S. Wires,
Nathaniel Parker,
Jo. D. Hatch,
Geo. F. Edmunds,
Ormi A. Dodge,
F. C. Kennedy,
Lawrence Barnes.

CUSTOMS.—WIND MILL POINT.—There were cleared outward and inward from the Customs Office at Wind Mill Point, during the month of October 293 vessels, for November, 1868. Amount of duties collected for October $8,368.00, for Nov. $5,134.95.

GEOGRAPHY AND HISTORY OF VERMONT.—The publisher, Hon. C. W. Willard, of Montpelier, has our thanks for a copy of the latest edition of "Hall's Geography and History of Vermont". The new edition has been revised by Rev. Pliny H. White a member of the old Board of Education, and is coming into general use in the schools of Vermont.

DIVORCES.—No less than seventy-two divorces were granted in Rutland county during the five years ending with 1866, the largest number save one, of any county in the State.

COL. VEAZEY'S ADDRESS.—The "Middlebury Register" speaks in the highest terms of Col. Vezzey's address at the dedication of the Soldiers' Monument at Cornwall on Tuesday last. The occasion was one of much interest.

INSTALLATION.—Rev. Geo. L. Walker, son of Rev. Chas. Walker, a former pastor of the Congregational church in Battleboro, was installed as pastor of the first church at New Haven, Ct., on Wednesday, Nov. 18th. His venerable father was present on the occasion and gave "the charge" to his son. Young Mr. Walker had been pastor of a church at Portland, Me., for several years, but his health being impaired he resigned that position, and resting from arduous labors for a time his health was sufficiently restored to enable him to resume the duties of the pastoral office.

PAID HER FINE.—Mrs. Catharine Dillon of St. Albans, who was convicted at the last term of the United States Court, at Windsor, of smuggling goods from Canada, and fined the sum of $1500 therefor, on Thursday last paid her fine and costs in the case, amounting in all to nearly $1700.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—We learn that one of the warehouses of Gates & Kilburn, of Philadelphia, furniture dealers, whose principal manufactory is in Burlington was wholly consumed by fire on Thursday evening last, during an extensive conflagration in the city. The loss is estimated at $75,000, which we believe is partly insured.

John Stuart Mill was defeated for Parliament by William H. Smith, the London news agent, who has made a fortune by selling newspapers, and takes 30,000 copies of the London Times.

It is reported that A. T. Stewart is to open a store in Boston.

Victor Hugo's eldest son is almost as gray-haired as his illustrious father.

The only child of Stonewall Jackson gives promise of great intelligence and beauty.

Forrest receives $500 a night for playing at the Opera House in Troy.

Miss Charlotte Crampton is playing Hamlet to large audiences in Nashville.

Rev. Dr. Abram N. Littlejohn has accepted the office of Bishop of Long Island. He is nearly 44 years of age, and has been in orders more than 20 years.

One of the Presidential electors chosen in South Carolina to fill a vacancy was William Cook, a colored man.

Mlle Lambelle has married the manager of the French Theatre at New Orleans.

Renne's Pain-Killing Magic Oil is sold by most of our Druggists and Mercantiles, and has become a standard article in market. This position it has won by its great merit. It cures pain, and the people like it and will have it—one man says his wife would not be without it if the bottles cost $100.

FULTON MARKET.—Just received, a nice lot Dried Beef, Sugar Cured Hams, Bologna Sausage, Sweet Potatoes, Tomatoes, Peas, Peaches, Water Melons and Musk Melons. dtf-94.

One of the few things that the North and South will probably ever fully agree upon is that "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" is not only the best preventive to the hair falling out, but also the finest dressing ever before the public. It richly deserves the "Silver Medal" awarded by the New Hampshire State Fair.—Dubuque Times. d&w.
